500 Masked and Silent Men March in Streets of Jacksonville.

'Brook No Interference,' Mot to on Banners-Motorists Ordered Off Route.

Special Despatch to THE New York Heraid-JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 30.—Five hundred members of the Ku Klux Klan marched through the streets of Jacksonville to-night following the "flaming cross" emblem of the order supposedly as a warning to negroes to attempt no lawlessness at the polis next Tuesday.

The parade of the white masked klan was staged despite urgent re-klan was staged despite urgent requests from national negro organizations sent to the local police department, city officials and also to State officials at Tallahassee.

People of Jacksonville got their first official notice of the parade at 8 o'clock when two mounted and masked klansmen rode through the main streets warning motorists to get their cars to the curbs. One of the men carried a bugle which he blew at intervals to attract attention. The other made this announcement:

and will brook no interference." Main Body of Parade on Foot.

We are a band of determined men

Main Body of Parade on Foot.

The main body of the parade was afoot. It took the men marching at a military pace more than twenty minutes to pass a given point. Crowds watched them from the curb. Some of the spectators had waited since arrly evening for the coming of the klansmen, who marched by in silence.

All of the participants were masked in the recognized Klu Klux costume, and it was impossible to recognize any of them. It is said that there are more than 4,000 in the city. Silence was observed, the only message the parade oclivered being on banners carried at intervals in the parade. Some of these read: "We were here yesterday. We are here forever."

"Duty, fearless and without reproteh."
Negroes were scarce. Few witnessed e parade. With the coming of darkss most of the colored population gotleif in the house. Only those who were aployed in downtown shops were in the siness district during the parade, nese kept close to their places of emopyment while the ghostly looking klan ssed Sy. There was no disorder, here was no interference with the parle either by civilians or police authorist.

Traffic Cops Do Not Interfere.

Traffic policemen on duty in the down-town district were at their posts until the parade started filing by, but made no attempt to keep people on the curbs after it began.

Notice of the parade was carried in newspapers of the city two days ago. Another story appeared in the newspapers to-night stating that the heralds would appear on the streets a half-hour before the parade started.

This story stated that members of the klan from neighboring cities would parade.

klan from neighboring cities would par-ticipate and that other cities were going to stage a parade at the same time. It mentioned St. Augustine, Hastings, South Jacksonville and Palatka among the cities which were going to send rep-resentatives. sentatives.
It also stated that it would be useless to attempt to ascertain who the members of the klan were, and no one seem to know where the klan assembled o where it disbanded. No one admit membership in the klan.

NON-PARTISAN STAND BY CARDINAL GIBBONS

Refuses to Be Drawn Into Controversy on League.

outhentic statement of Cardinal Gib-ons's attitude toward the League of Misconstructions of his previous uterances notwithstancing. Cariinal Gibbons has never, since the League of Nations became a party issue, declared either for or against "the league," a member of his household has been authorized to state. The Cardinal has, in plain words, given his approval of an international covenant that would minimize the possibilities of war, or entirely prevent it, and at the same time safeguard the interests of the American nation, as well as insure justice to the on, as well as insure justice to the tion, as well as insure justice to the smaller countries.

In thus defining his attitude on the subject, he has carefully and consistently avoided any declaration that could be justly interpreted as partisan.

The Rev. Edward Leonard, one of the cathedral priests, who has handled much of the Cardinal's correspondence on this and other subjects, when asked to make clear the prelate's attitude, explained that Cardinal Gibbons stood firmly with Pope Benedict for an international pact that had for its function the assurance of peace and justice. ternational pact that had for its function the assurance of peace and justice. As to the technical or political aspects of such a pact or association of nations, the Cardinal does not believe it within his province to suggest or amend. He frankly eludes any attempt to draw him into a controversia discussion, and states plainly that, whatever his personal valuation of either Senator Harding or Gov. Cov might be, he prefers to comain, in his capacity as a churchman, entirely non-partisan. man, entirely non-partisan, "A close scrutley of the Cardinal's
